

Workshop

Boosting the market for energy efficiency in buildings

Insights and recommendations

30 September 2016
Hotel Novotel
Conference room Lyon
Calea Victoriei 37B Sector 1 - 010061 BUCUREȘTI

Interpretation: Romanian <> English

9.00 Registration and coffee

9.30 Introduction Serban Danciu (BPIE Country Manager Romania)

9.35 The revision of the European Performance of Buildings Directive. Updates and implications for Romania
Tudor Constantinescu, European Commission

09.55 Energy efficiency in buildings as part of the Romanian Energy Strategy for 2016-2030 with a view on 2050
Romanian Ministry of Energy

10.15 Methods and instruments to track the market transition to nearly Zero-Energy Buildings. Insights and recommendations from the ZEBRA2020 project
Maarten De Groot, BPIE

10.45 The Portuguese approach to implementing the ESCO method. Lessons learned and recommendations.
Dinis Rodrigues, ADENE (Portuguese Energy Agency) (tbc)

11.00 New subsidy scheme for the energy efficiency renovation of Single Family Homes in Slovakia
Kateřina Věntusová, Buildings for the future

11.20 Discussion with representatives from the European Commission, Ministry of Energy, ADENE, Buildings for the future, BPIE

12.00 Closing &
Lunch

